PRODUTOS / MÁQUINAS

QS Solar is part of the Qiangsheng (QS) family (Qiangsheng means strong life). QS was founded in 1993 as an industrial manufacturer. In the subsequent years, we at QS have gained worldwide recognition for our ability to produce technologically advanced, cost-effective solutions for the marketplace. We maintain a R&D Technical Center which has consistently created new materials and processes that have revolutionized our business fields. And we've earned ISO certification for both our manufacturing quality and our respect for the environment. We gained ISO9001:2000 and ISO14001 in 2001, proving our commitment to quality and our community. The Corporate goals QS already achieved Develop the next generation of solar energy cells: amorphous thin-film cells Inaugurate China's first 25MW line capacity for amorphous thin-film cells Import the world's best manufacturing technology and match it with the fruits of China's own world-class R&D efforts The Corporate goals QS will achieve Reach production capacity of 500MW by the end of 2010 Become one of the world's leaders in amorphous silicon solar thin-film cell manufacturing
