OEM Automotive Glass & Aftermarket Automotive Glass Industries

One of PPD's core strengths is the rapid development and launch of automotive glass/glazing systems. PPD has engineered many glass encapsulation and glass assembly systems with varying levels of complexity. Our OEM automotive glass offering is mostly driven by specialized or complex products.

Marine Glass Industries

PPD has several designs and have worked with some large manufacturers on specialty marine glazing systems.

Recreational Vehicle / RV Glass Industries

In addition to our market leading Tier 1 OEM Automotive Glass & Aftermarket Automotive Glass support, PPD offers a full line of services to the recreational vehicle industry. Whether supply for a replacement window is needed or updated value add services are desired, we are your first stop.

PPD is familiar with the products produced by many of the current and past window manufacturers and ready to provide quick delivery for those new and improved RV windows that you may have in mind.

Mass Transit & Heavy Truck Industries

Struggling with supply for replacement products or ready to upgrade your window technology?

We're your Number 1 choice for re-imagining the window systems that are currently in the mass transit and heavy truck market. Our goal is to support your current or next generation of products systematic approach to quality, service and value. We are an aftermarket supplier for all automotive OEM's and have the design options to suit your current and future needs.

Specialty Vehicle Industries

Whatever segment of vehicles your products serve, give our team of professionals a call and we will show you how easy it is to move from development, to product design, to prototype, and to production. PPD can help you in specialty vehicle markets such as:

- Electric Vehicles
- Custom three wheeled vehicles
